President Makes Another Vigorous ROOSEVELT'S SPEECH IN TWO WORDS: COME ON!

To-Day!

To-Day:

To-While the dinner was in progress the reported to have inherited from her father, Cornellus Vanderbilt.

It is also interesting to know that in the duel, which was fought on Jan, 2, 1905, on the Austrian frontier, Mr. Ba shot him in the arm.

While the dinner was in progress the President was presented with an oil painting of a section of the Mississippi River under present conditions, and the companion piece to represent "Condition after the completion of the waterway" was promised for the future. The Mississippi was escorted down the river from SU Louis all the way to Cairo by ten other boats, and it was met early in the morning by a huge excursion steamer from this city, which carried not only several hundred passengers but also a vociderous steam calliope, which for the time monopolized the noise making on the midle stretches of the Futher of Waters. Some people pretend to feel very sorry for Robert Walton Goelet, who has r large fortune and who has been mos Miss Vanderbilt came of age in June last She has one sister, Mrs. Harry Payne Whitney. Her brothers are Cor nelius. Alfred Gwynne and Reginald Vanderbilt. She is a niece of William K. Vanderbilt. Sr., and of Frederick and George Vanderbilt. She has a talent for music, and was once a pupil of Jean de Reszke.
