

SIX YOUNG NAVY CAPTAINS GIVEN SIX NEW WAR VESSELS

Five to Be Taken From Duty in Washington.

ALL ARE UNDER 53 MARK

That Dreadnought's Chief Is But Forty-six Led to New Policy.

Six captains of the navy, all of whom are either stationed in Washington now or recently, have been given their first battleship commands, four of them being lucky enough to draw brand-new war dogs of the most modern construction. This number of captains to be placed on battleships for the first time is unusual, particularly since five of them are to be taken from duty in this city.

Significant with this move is the fact that none of the officers is over fifty-three years of age, which is three years less than the average age of battleship commanders in the United States Navy at present—an important step in the direction of putting younger officers in command of the battleships, as recommended by the Newberry board on personnel, and approved by Secretary Bonaparte in his report to Congress.

Cause of New Policy.

This policy is the outgrowth of the discovery that the commander of the Dreadnought, Great Britain's monster war dog, is but forty-six years of age. The officers and the ships they are to command are as follows:

- Potter Has the Pick.
Capt. W. P. Potter, Vermont.
Capt. William Swift, Connecticut.
Capt. Henry McCrea, Iowa.
Capt. Dennis M. Mahan, Indiana.
Capt. John Hubbard, Minnesota.
Captains Potter, Swift and McCrea have been assigned to the Bureau of Navigation, has been assigned to what might be considered the most desirable command, as reports indicate that the Vermont will be the queen of the splendid new battleships that will soon be put in sea service.

CAPT. W. P. POTTER. Queen of the New Battleships, the Vermont, Will Be Under His Care.

CAPT. HENRY MCCREA. Former Lightship Inspector, of Baltimore District, Is to Command Iowa.

Captain Swift was a member of the general board and the army and navy joint board when he ordered to command the Connecticut, a few weeks ago. The Connecticut was constructed by the Government at the Brooklyn navy yard, and was put in commission this fall, a short time after the Louisiana. Captain Swift drew the ship named for his native State. He was made a captain in February, 1902.

Sketches of Others.

Captain Vreeland, who will take charge of the Kansas early in February, is aide to the Assistant Secretary of the Navy. The Kansas is being completed at Camden, N. J., and will be commissioned in the early spring. He was only recently promoted to captain, and came up from the ranks.

Captain Hubbard, the fourth man to draw a new battleship for his command, is assistant chief of the Bureau of Ordnance. The Minnesota was built at Newport News, and will be put in commission in about three weeks.
Captain McCrea, who until recently was lightship inspector for the Baltimore district, is ordnance officer at the Washington navy yard. He will leave Wednesday to relieve Captain Tilley of the command of the Iowa.

Captain Mahan, brother of Capt. A. T. Mahan, retired, the famous naval writer, will take command of the Indiana tomorrow. He has been ordnance officer at the Norfolk navy yard since January, 1905.

MURDER 500 MEN, THEN EAT BODIES

Dr. Johnson Tells of Outrages in Congo Free State.

Outrages which are said to have been committed in the Congo Free State for the last ten years and which are still being committed, formed the subject of a lecture yesterday afternoon in Howard University Chapel, when the Rev. Dr. Herbert Johnson, pastor of Warren Avenue Baptist Church, Boston, gave an outline of conditions there. Dr. Johnson told of the continued atrocities which are committed under the rule of King Leopold of Belgium, and declared that no one could name to him a person who had been punished for one of these offenses.

In the course of his lecture Dr. Johnson exhibited a large cloth, to which were attached about 500 splints, each of which was said to represent a murder in a Congo village. Every time a murder was committed, he said, the man would add a splint to his collection, and these were turned over to the missionary, and their significance explained. The outrages, Dr. Johnson said, were committed by the soldiers of King Leopold, who, after murdering their victims, would eat their flesh before the eyes of the victim's relatives. He said it was a rule in the military service of King Leopold that every time a soldier used a cartridge he must have a human hand to show for it. Frequently, he said, the hands were placed over a fire, grating, roasted, and then eaten by the soldiers.

Dr. Johnson urged the co-operation of his hearers in bringing the matter to the attention of Secretary Root, in an effort to obtain American intervention.

Strength Comes Not From What You Eat, But From What You Digest.

Most people eat most foods without discrimination—it matters little what they eat, so long as they get their food for them. This is the first turn on the road to dyspepsia. Reckless disregard of the proper choice of foods, rapid eating and improper mastication, are the unquestioned causes of all stomach disorders, from the slight ailment to the malignant cancer.

There is nothing more revolting than a dyspeptic stomach—a very fact that is being widely recognized. The poison throughout the entire system, depressing the brain, befuddling the nerves, incapacitating the liver and kidneys for their work, debilitating the heart, choking the lungs and clogging the bowels.

All of these disagreeable and dangerous conditions are due to the improper digestion of food and the consequent assimilation of poison. What else can be expected? If the food lies in the stomach, if the system is constipated, fermentation is the natural outcome. It shows itself in sour vegetable fumes, belching, heartburn and painful breaking.

There is only one way to relieve this condition. If the stomach refuses to digest your food put something into it that will "Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets" are nothing but digestives. They are not a medicine. They work when the stomach will not.

Each tablet contains enough pepsin, diastase, golden seal and other digestive elements to reduce 3,000 grains of ordinary food to the proper consistency for assimilation into the blood. Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are absolutely reliable. They will cure your stomach trouble whatever it may be, unless you have waited too long and have allowed your disorder to develop into cancer.

Act today and begin to end your suffering. Each bottle contains trial package sent to your address upon request. The 50 cent size packages are for sale at drug stores. E. J. Stuart Co., 175 Stuart Bldg., Marshall, Mich.

Disciple of Mrs. Eddy Tells of Her Religion

General Kimball Introduces Magnetic Speaker, the Rev. Mr. McKenzie, to Interested Washington Audience.

An audience that filled the National Theater yesterday afternoon heard the Rev. W. P. McKenzie, of Cambridge, Mass., member of the Christian Science board of the First Church of Christ, of Boston.

Mr. McKenzie was introduced by Brig. Gen. Amos S. Kimball, U. S. A., retired, who said: "I appreciate the honor of being selected to preside over this meeting and introduce to you a lecture on Christian Science, for this is a subject that appeals to me strongly."

Gives Mrs. Eddy Credit.

"During the winter of 1902-3 while suffering from a severe physical breakdown caused by official responsibilities incident to our war with Spain, Christian Science first came to my notice. The reading of the book, 'Science and Health, With Key to the Scriptures,' by Mary Baker Eddy, completely regenerated me, physically, morally, and spiritually."

"It brought me to an understanding of God, and man as his image and likeness, showing me that I had been suffering from my ignorance of God and my relations to Him. 'This spiritual understanding was the pearl of great price' that Christian Science has been to me, indeed, a key to the Scriptures, unfolding their precious teachings."

Tribute to Woman.

"I honor and respect the author of this great book, who, by her spirituality, consecration, and fidelity to divine principle, has led with undaunted courage this great army of Christ's followers during this warfare between truth and error, spirit and matter."

"The first tenet of Christian Science as stated in Science and Health, is 'We take the inspired word of the Bible as our sufficient guide to eternal life.' The teachings of Christian Science not only corroborate but prove the healings recorded in the Bible, beginning with Abraham and extending through the ages to 200 years after the crucifixion and ascension of Jesus. This spiritual healing was then swallowed up in the materialism of the dark ages where its principle and demonstration remained in obscurity until rediscovered by our leader, the revealer and founder of Christian Science."

Sin Behind Disease.

"With Christ, the spiritual scientific application of divine love healed instantly all manner of diseases, and his understanding was the pearl of great price' that Christian Science has been to me, indeed, a key to the Scriptures, unfolding their precious teachings."
