SIEGEL AND VOGEL FACE NEW CHARGES,

Six More Indictments Are, Expected Next Week, and There May Be 20.

WHITMAN ANNOUNCES HE WILL PUSH CASE

Refunding of Depositors's Money, Now Unlikely, May Help Accused, but Worft Stop Trial.

It is expected that at least six additional indictments will be returned gainst Henry Siegel and Frank E. Vogel early next week. There may be twenty returned. Grand larceny, involving alleged false statements to banks and receiving deposits in the pank of Henry Siegel & Co. after it had become insolvent, will be charged.

These indictments, The Tribune learns based upon evidence presented to the grand jury yesterday by Assistant District Attorney Arthur C. Train, who on Monday will resume the work. Even yesterday the indictment clerks were

District Attorney Whitman is authority for the statement that, no matter what Siegel and Vogel may now do, such indictments as may be brought against them will be pushed to trial. If these men, between now and the time they are called upon to face a trial jury, see fit to make restitution in part or in whole, the fact of their doing so will undoubtedly be considered.

There is no apparent chance of their doing so, however, Louis Sampter Levy, of their counsel, making it clear yeslowed to remain at liberty.

SIEGEL DEBT COMPROMISED Bank Depositors to Get $132, 500 as Result of Action.

(By Telegraph to The Tribune. Boston, March 27 .- At a meeting before Referee Olmstead, in the United States Bankrupfcy Court to-day, a compromise was effected in the claims of the Siegel companies in New York against the Boston store, amounting to $1 550,000, whereby the sum of $132,500 will go by agreement to the depositors in the Siegel bank. The money of these depositors was loaned to the various Siege! stores. The trustees of the Boston store expect to pay the other creditor's at least 20 per cent or possibly 25 per cent on their claims.
