

The Mother Ship Bushnell at League Island, and Varied Views Gleaned by the Camera

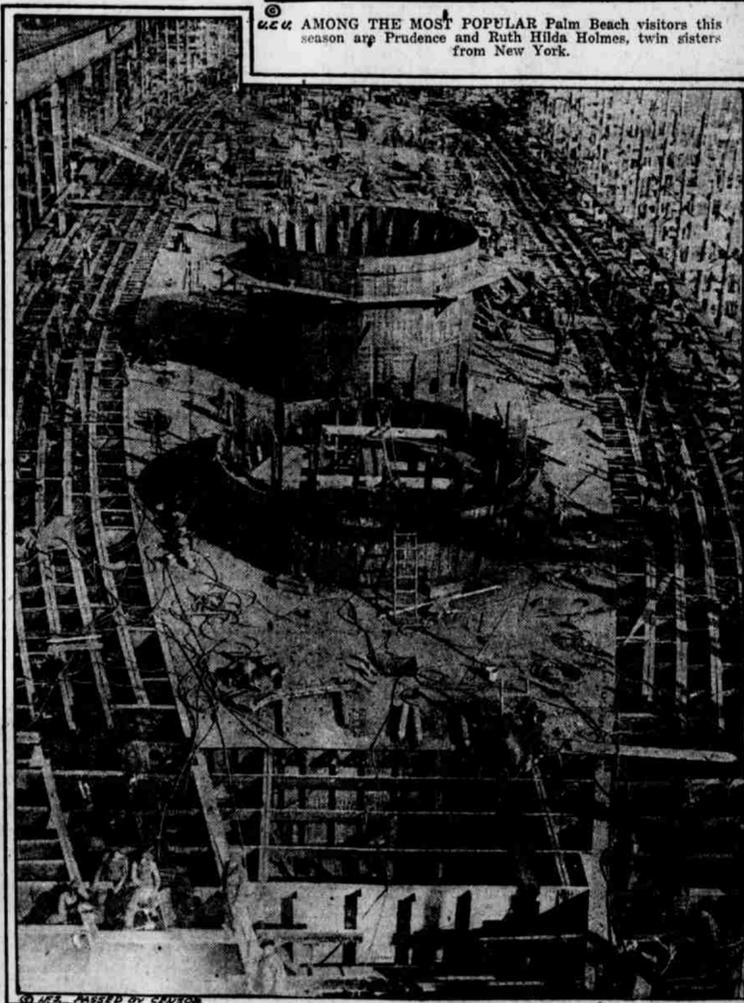

THE U. S. S. BUSHNELL, one of the finest ships in the navy, arrived yesterday at the Philadelphia Navy Yard. For nearly eighteen months this trim craft has been on duty in European waters as mother-ship of a submarine flotilla.

AMONG THE MOST POPULAR Palm Beach visitors this season are Prudence and Ruth Hilda Holmes, twin sisters from New York.

AMERICAN SUBMARINES home again from foreign waters lying in the sheltered basin at League Island

BUILDING A SUPER-DREADNOUGHT—At the Newport News shipyard a thousand men and more are working daily constructing the powerful warship Maryland for Uncle Sam's navy.

AN INTERESTING VIEW of famous Verdun. The German Crown Prince sacrificed countless lives to capture this fortress. The longest and fiercest battle of the war was fought for this little city. In the view, directly back of the fortifications, can be seen the citadel and the town of Verdun. In the distance are houses ruined by German gun fire.

CAPTAIN L. CRILLON CHAPMAN, New York, one of twelve survivors of the original forty fliers in the famous Lafayette Escadrille.

ENGINES OF DESTRUCTION are turned to the reconstruction of devastated France. Here a tank is used in place of horses to draw a plow.