

"Hip, Hip, Hooray," Marjorie's Battleship Gets an Added Starter at the Hippodrome.

Troop I, Waterbury (Conn), Council, Boy Scouts of America, whose members sent $5 worth of preparedness to Marjorie Sterrett.

Marjorie W. Fleming, of Darien, Conn., sent her mite.

Agnes Louise Russell and the dog that barked approval when she mailed her dime.

Marjorie Sterrett, John Philip Sousa and Albert A. Hopkins at the Marjorie's Battleship Fund performance at the Hippodrome. The last named gave Marjorie a cupful of 1,156 dimes.

Greeley Photo Service.

Albert W. Halpern, three years old, of Fleischmann's, N. Y. He sent a dime to Marjorie.

Robert M. Frutchey, 3633 Park Ave., Minneapolis. His dime was made in the U. S. A.

The First Naval Battalion, U. S. Boy Scouts, who appeared at the Hippodrome to boost Marjorie's Battleship Fund.

ILLUSTRATION.