

THE NEWS IN PICTURES : The Sunday Herald's Special Page of Photographs From All Parts of the World

First Picture of Ex-King Charles' Return to Exile

It took ex-emperor Carl of Austria-Hungary only a few short days to learn that his former subjects were not clamoring for a king—especially a Hapsburg—as he thought. At 87, Carl is shown on his arrival at Steinhilber, Hungary, "to become king." Right, bidding farewell to friends who Hungary ordered "back to exile."

Aids Police

This is the latest invention designed to save policeman's lives. It is a sheet-iron screen 10 feet high and 4 feet wide, and its surface is lined in the middle to form a "barrier." It has small windows through which police may shoot. It is intended for use in creating up an outlaw who barricades himself in houses and fire on pursuers from sheltered positions.

First Picture—Real Rulers of Japan

This is the first picture to reach America showing Premier Hara of Japan with his cabinet. It was taken recently at the premier's home in Tokyo. (1) Takahashi, finance; (2) Yamamoto, agriculture; (3) Hara, communications; (4) Terauchi, navy; (5) Matsuda, railways; (6) Yukunishi, home affairs; (7) Goto, foreign affairs; (8) Maru, navy; (9) Nishimura, education.

She Dances

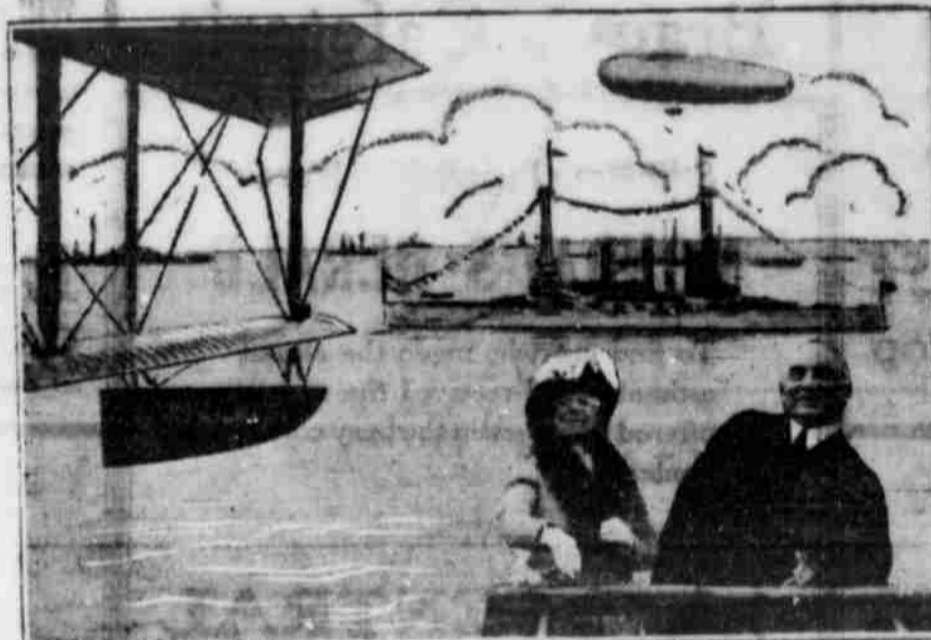

One of the youthful entertainers for members of the diplomatic corps in Washington is six-year-old Carmen Diaz, daughter of Senator R. C. Castillo Diaz, Honduran envoy.

'Who's Afraid?'

Evelyn Ruth Touque, of Louisville, Ky., is sailing to England where on the lower Humber, she will visit her grand father, G. H. Touque, in England.

Harding Reviewing Fleet

Warships and fighting aircraft are shown passing in review before President Harding of Hampton Roads, Va., on his first visit to the Atlantic fleet, April 28. Left, President and Mrs. Harding on the deck of the Mayflower, from which they watched the review.

Up She Goes!

"American League Championship, 1920," is the inscription on the pennant that was raised at Denon Field, Cleveland, April 20. The Indians' pennant of white with the stars and stripes, the pennant and the Denon field banner went up.

Pitches No-Hit Game

"Miss Virginia Flann, of Tomsall, N. J. pitched a no-hit game, struck out 20 of the 27 batters who faced her and allowed but three to reach first base in a contest between Tomsall and East Wetherford, N. J., on April 28. Score, 7 to 1.

Business Booms

Waitresses in the Baltimore cafe, Chicago, appeared in knee-length red pantsuits and hairdos immediately before picture show. Mrs. Maxine Jorjane, serving a customer.

$5,000 Worth of Dog

Atlantic City started when Miss Dorothy Perkins of New York came down the boardwalk with her long-haired, white white Tibetan dog, worth $5,000, she says.

Caruso Comes Up Smiling

Enrico Caruso's recent illness left him thin and weak, but the noted tenor smiles the same old Caruso smile. He is able to be out now for a brief daily automobile ride in New York. This picture shows him entering his apartment with Mrs. Caruso after a ride.

Mamma Sees Wedding

Unable to attend the wedding of her daughter, Margot (above), to Sir William Duffell, in London, Ethel Gray, famous actress, saw the ceremony in Los Angeles by movie.

Star Runner

Augusta Schmitt, Berlin, won the 1000 yard cross-country run in Germany.

Too Late

Miss Alice Cunningham of London, married in New York too late to save the life of "John Daniels," her $25,000 divorcee partner. After he joined Barron and Bailey's the battle began to lose again. Miss Cunningham was called "John" and died before she arrived.