

HOMeward BOUND

Photo taken at Ford Island in
Pearl Harbor, T. H. on Saturday,
29 September 1945, after the planes
had been loaded by the cranes seen on the dock. Ship left on Monday,
1 October for Panama and the East Coast.

OFFICE OF THE COMMANDING OFFICER
U.S.S. RANDOLPH [CV-16]

RANDOLPH, home after thirteen months, mostly in distant-enemy waters, will dock in Baltimore, Maryland, the afternoon of 25 October 1945. Two days later the Nation celebrates Navy Day.

The privilege of an early welcome, after months of anxiety, is reserved to RANDOLPH Families and Personal Friends. You are cordially invited to be aboard for the events of Reunion Days, 25 and 26 October,

P R O G R A M

25 October 1945

Family Reunion

Visit living, eating, working spaces and review departmental exhibits.

26 October 1945

Reception	Dinner	Movies
Three - Five O'clock	Five - Seven O'clock	Seven - Nine O'clock

Public open house commences Navy Day - 27 October 1945. You are welcome then, or on any visiting day, but privileges necessarily will be fewer than on Homecoming Days.

J. B. Tate.