

Social and Personal.

A NUMBER of Richmond people are spending the summer months in the mountains of West Virginia. Mrs. Thomas Cary Johnson and family are pleasantly located at Lewisburg for the summer, and Mrs. Johnson's mother, Mrs. Thomas S. Boccock, and daughter, Mrs. Reynolds, will go to "Gardenville," the ancestral home of the family, at Martinsburg, W. Va., after the conclusion of their visits to relatives and friends in Winchester, Va. Both Mrs. Boccock and Mrs. Reynolds have hosts of friends in Northern Virginia and the latter is being warmly welcomed during their stay in Winchester. Mrs. Hunter McGuire and her daughter, Mrs. Cary Russell Montague, and others of the McGuire family, are at the White Sulphur, and Mrs. Swanson, with the Governor, will leave the last of the week to join the Richmond contingent there.

Major Stringfellow and Miss Margaret Stringfellow are also spending the season at the White Sulphur.

At the wedding of Miss Elizabeth C. Badger, daughter of Captain Charles J. Badger, United States Navy, and Mrs. Badger, to Lieutenant-Commander Henry F. Bryan, which took place on Wednesday afternoon in Washington in the home of the late Rear Admiral Sampson, Miss Esther Byrnes, of Norfolk, Va., attended Miss Badger as maid of honor.

A small company witnessed the ceremony, which was characterized by the utmost simplicity.

The house was decorated entirely in white and green, palms and ferns forming a background for palms and white roses.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white lace with a tulle veil and carried a shower of lilies of the valley. Miss Byrnes, who is the daughter of Medical Director Byrnes, U. S. N., wore a white lingerie gown, finished with green and white ribbon.

A small reception, at which the guests were intimate friends of the bride and groom, followed the ceremony, and later Lieutenant-Commander Bryan and his bride left Washington for Lake George, where they will spend several weeks before going to Annapolis.

Captain Badger, the bride's father, until recently superintendent of the Naval Academy, will return to his ship, the Kansas, in a few days.

Miss Hunt on Visit North. Miss Denzel Hunt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Hunt, is spending several weeks at Montclair, N. J., where she is having a charming stay as the house guest of Mr. and Mrs. Emberton, who will return with her in August on a visit to the Hunts at their country place, near Galesburg, Md.

She has been enjoying sightseeing in New York City and many little trips to adjacent points of interest, as well as a number of pleasant affairs which have been given in her honor.

Mrs. Hunt, with Master Gilbert and Aubrey Lee Hunt, is now at Urbana, Va.

Miss Lipscombe to Attend House Party. Miss Susie Lipscombe, of this city, will be one of the guests in a house party to be given at Cape Henry next week, with Mrs. R. E. Stead as chaperon. Other guests will be Miss Susie Dawson, of Lynchburg; Miss Genevieve Ellett, of Washington, D. C.; Misses Emily Harrell, Clara Stead, Lella Betty, Mildred Dawson and Marge Price, of Norfolk; R. M. Winn, of Chase City; Richard Lancaster, of Ashland; Frank Sears, of Portsmouth; Y. W. White, H. E. Masengill, Ralph Dawson, W. B. White, Reaves Worsham, G. M. Betty and E. C. W. of Norfolk.

Return from Lake George. The Rev. J. S. Lloyd, recently elected Bishop-Coadjutor of Virginia, has returned from a stay on Lake George, and will be for a few days in Alexandria, where he will reside after September 1.

Miss Poole Here. Miss Anna Cost Poole, whose approaching marriage to Rev. Walter Williams, of Georgetown, was recently announced, is accompanied during her stay in Richmond at Mrs. Camm's residence, 320 East Grace Street, by her mother, Mrs. Poole; Mrs. Louis Hankins and little Miss Florence Poole Hankins, of the Westmoreland, Washington, D. C.

Her wedding is to take place in the early autumn.

In and Out of Town. Mrs. F. W. Sims, of Louisa county, spent Wednesday in Richmond.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Scott Martin, of Farmville, are at the Jefferson.

Miss Helen Woodward will spend the summer at Rock Castle, Va.

Mrs. R. Claiborne Hale, who has been spending July with Mr. and Mrs. Scott Martin, of Farmville, is now the guest of Colonel and Mrs. George Cabell, of Norfolk.

Miss Norma Jones has returned to Danville from a delightful visit to friends in Richmond.

Robert Phifer, Jr., formerly of Richmond, has just returned to Danville from a visit to Cunningham, N. C.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam E. Blanton, of Petersburg, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. Claiborne Hale.

Important Notice to Gas Consumers

On and after August 1, 1909, gas bills will be rendered as follows:

FIRST DISTRICT (east of the centre of Fourteenth Street) on the 1st instead of the 10th of the month.

SECOND DISTRICT (between Fourteenth and the west side of First Street) on the 8th instead of the 22d of the month.

THIRD DISTRICT (between First and the west side of Harrison Street) on the 15th instead of the 2d of the month.

FOURTH DISTRICT (west of Harrison Street) on the 23d instead of the 2d of the month.

Whenever delivery day falls on Sunday or a legal holiday the bills will bear date of the following day. If a bill is not paid within five days after delivery 5 per cent. will be added. If paid by check the bill must accompany the check, and both should be mailed to the City Treasurer before the last day to insure their delivery in time to save the penalty. If a bill is not paid within ten days after delivery the gas will be turned off.

JOSEPH M. SHELTON,
Inspector of Gas, Richmond, Va.

Mrs. D. W. Gilliam, of Farmville, later they will visit Walkerton as the house guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Harrower.

Mrs. B. C. Henry, of Richmond, and daughter stopped over in West Point, Va., recently, with Mrs. T. A. Hall, on their way to King and Queen, where they will spend the remainder of the summer at Locust Cottage, the home of Mr. Ryland.

Mrs. C. E. Hughes is entertaining Miss Elizabeth Brown, of this city, in her Danville home.

Miss Daisy Baker is with her mother, Mrs. M. E. Baker, in Charlotte county.

Mrs. Malone and Miss Malone have returned to Baltimore from a stay at Old Point Comfort and Virginia Beach.

Miss Bertha Mays, who has been visiting friends in Lynchburg for the past month, left yesterday for the mountains.

BRILLIANT NAVAL PAGEANT WILL MARK ROYAL REVIEW

Immense English Fleet to Gather at Portsmouth on Saturday and to Be Inspected Later by Emperor of Russia.

LONDON, July 22.—The summer of 1909 will be remembered as a season of naval pageantry. Last month the greatest assemblage of war craft in the history of the British navy took place off Portsmouth. This week the same ships entered the games, and the public was able to see the largest fleet that ever anchored so near London.

On Saturday the ships will gather at Portsmouth, where on July 31 they will be reviewed by the King, and on the following Monday the Emperor of Russia will have an opportunity to see them when his yacht comes to Cowes for the meeting with Edward VII.

This mobilization of fighting craft will add unusual interest to the season at Cowes. The royal review will be an exceptionally brilliant event. The ships will anchor in six lines along the waters of the Solent from East Cowes to Stokes' Bay. The six lines, down which the general flotilla and the escorting vessels will be passed, will be arranged as follows:

Home Fleet: Line A—First battleship squadron and first cruiser squadron; line B—Second battleship squadron and second cruiser squadron.

Atlantic Fleet: Line C—Fourth and fifth cruiser squadrons; line D—Second destroyer flotilla, with attendant cruisers; line E—First destroyer flotilla, with attendant cruisers; line F—Submarines, with their attendant vessels.

The three admirals who will be in command are Sir William May, Sir A. B. Milne and Prince Louis of Battenberg. Besides the royal personages and officials of the admiralty, in their respective yachts, many members of Parliament will attend the review in the White Star steamer Adriatic, which has been chartered for the occasion. There will be also a number of private yachts.

A Double Marriage. [Special to The Times-Dispatch.] LAVERGNEVILLE, Va., July 22.—A double marriage took place at 8 o'clock, when Miss Annie B. Gunn became the bride of John Daniel Boze and Miss Lily M. Mason the bride of Jesse M. House. All of the parties left from the neighborhood of Adsett. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. J. S. Lloyd.

Devoted to Clinics. [Special to The Times-Dispatch.] HAMPTON, Va., July 22.—The second day's session of the Virginia State Dental Association was devoted to-day to interesting clinics and several very good addresses. To-morrow the association will probably elect Dr. A. J. Applewhite, of Newport News, president.

Counsel, Not Commissioner. The report in The Times-Dispatch of Thursday, under the caption, "Hotel Condemned," was erroneous in that it stated that Attorney Robert H. Talley sat as a commissioner in chancery to take testimony as to the value of Ford's Hotel. Mr. Talley acted in the case as counsel for various interested parties, and not as commissioner.

Obstructive Court Abolished. ATLANTA, Ga., July 22.—The little city court of Hamilton, Ga., which delayed the passage of prohibition in Georgia for four days two years ago was abolished by the House yesterday.

Bigamy Bill Passes. ATLANTA, Ga., July 22.—The Harrell bill increasing the maximum penalty for bigamy from four to twenty years' imprisonment passed the Senate yesterday by a substantial majority.

TORPEDO STRUCK ANCHORED SHIP

Missile Had No "War Head," and Therefore Damage Was Slight.

TYPHOID FEVER IN FLEET

Fourteen Marines Taken to Naval Hospital at Chelsea for Treatment.

PROVINCETOWN, MASS., July 22.—A missile shot from the torpedo tube of the submarine Viper is said to have come within an inch of smashing in the side of the William F. Green, as the lay quietly at anchor in the cove yesterday afternoon. The Viper is one of the four government submarines now manoeuvring here with Admiral Schmederer, in the Green, a dismantled three-master coaster, used as a floating base for the electric boat company's fleet of completed, but unaccepted, submarines in Provincetown harbor, has laid here, near the long point at the west end of the harbor, for a month or more.

The torpedo discharged by the Viper was aimed at a floating target. It fortunately did not wear a "war head." The torpedo missed the target, but struck the Green while traveling at a fast rate. It struck that vessel in the side diagonally. The missile plowed a furrow three inches deep in the stout oak plank at the ship's waterline. After striking the Green the torpedo swerved outward at a greater angle and with speed apparently little diminished pushed from the scene. It was a narrow escape for the Green, only the glancing nature of the blow saving her from serious injury.

The trouble is said to have been caused by a defect in the missile's adjustment, causing it to swerve from its intended course.

All the typhoid fever patients of the battleship fleet, fourteen in number, were taken by the Maine to the Charlestown Navy Yard yesterday afternoon and were placed in the naval hospital in Chelsea. The cases thus far are regarded as mild and give promise of ultimate recovery.

The cause of the outbreak of typhoid is unknown. While some of the crew are inclined to think that the men may have contracted the disease in the Norfolk and Philadelphia Navy Yards, as the Wisconsin, Georgia and Maine recently came from that vicinity.

The Rhode Island Naval Brigade landed at Truro, yesterday with tents and guns, but did not make camp. Planting mines and coaling ship occupied the remainder of their time.

The aircraft brigade was distributed principally among the ships that were out on the target range yesterday or that took part in the day battle practice between the big ships and the submarines.

SEE NO DANGER

Treasury Officials Do Not Fear Depreciation of Outstandings. WASHINGTON, D. C., July 22.—The possibility of depreciation of outstanding securities of the government in case the Panama Canal bonds, whose issuance is to be authorized to the extent of the total estimated cost of completion of the canal, was the subject of conferences in New York yesterday between United States Treasury Charles H. Treat and financial experts.

Some fear has been expressed in Wall Street that if the proposed bonds, which are to bear interest not exceeding 6 per cent, are to be permitted to be used as a basis for bank-note circulation, it would make almost limitless the currency that might be taken out there.

Treasury officials take the position that there is no likelihood of depreciation of outstanding bonds, even if any considerable portion of the proposed canal bond authorization is taken advantage of.

Cut by Scythe. FREEING, Va., July 22.—Kennis, the seventeen-year-old son of George W. Fleming, of Norfolk, had his thigh seriously cut with a scythe. He was riding, carrying the implement on his shoulder, when the horse shied, throwing the blade across his thigh, inflicting a severe wound and severing an artery.

WORK FINISHED, CONFERENCE ENDS

Many Reports Are Read and Much Business Done in Last Day.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] CHESTER, VA., July 22.—The Richmond District Conference had its third and last day here for 1909. The conference opened at 9:30 o'clock, Rev. W. A. Christian, P. E., presiding. Devotional exercises were led by V. W. Bargamin. Rev. C. W. Ray made a report on the "American Bible Society," which was discussed by Revs. J. H. Amis, G. F. Green, E. W. Rawlins and others. This report and discussion were of great interest. G. F. Green made a motion that a committee of three be appointed to consider the advisability of employing a colporteur for the district. O. Ryder offered as a substitute a committee of five, consisting of three preachers and two laymen, with a like committee from the West Richmond District, with authority to employ a temporary or permanent colporteur for the two districts, which substitute was adopted. Rev. E. H. Rawlins was appointed to bring the matter before the West Richmond District Conference. The following committee from this conference was appointed: Rev. W. A. Christian, P. E., as chairman; Revs. G. F. Green, E. T. Damm and C. W. Rawlins, laymen. Rev. G. F. Green made the report on Epworth Leagues, and after discussion by G. F. Green, G. W. Ray and J. H. Amis, the report was adopted. The district conference of Virginia was taken up and the following were elected as principals: R. T. Wilson, of Henrico; E. N. Perdue, of Chester; Chas. Rawlins, of Richmond; Judge T. J. Barham, of James City; D. M. Moger, of York; W. G. Ivey and Chas. Crew were elected as alternates.

The following local preachers passed their examination on character and their reports were renewed: C. R. Whitman, W. R. R. Moger, D. M. Moger, W. F. Johnson, D. W. Jackson and T. H. Kinser.

A committee of three was appointed to select a place for the meeting of the district conference next year, and the following were named as possible places: R. T. Wilson, O. Odell, with Rev. W. A. Christian, P. E., as chairman.

The orphanage report was submitted by Rev. W. P. Wright and adopted, after feeling discussion by Revs. A. B. Sharpe, O. Ryder and C. W. Rawlins.

Revs. W. R. Proctor, V. W. Bargamin, R. H. Polts and G. F. Green were appointed a committee to grant licenses to preach in the interim of the District Conference year, on examination. A collection was taken up for the sexton of $3.45 for service during the conference. Rev. G. W. Wray made the report on Sunday schools, which was of great interest.

Professor G. M. Smith reported on "Missions," and accepted the election as leader of the laymen's mission enterprise, and was most sanguine as to the result. If the laymen of the churches would co-operate with him, he said that an effort would be pressed to raise $3,000,000 for this work, and send out 1,500 missionaries to the foreign field.

Rev. E. H. Rawlins read sundry resolutions, as summary of the various subjects discussed during the session and the causes involved, which were adopted.

Rev. C. T. Damm reported on the spiritual state of the church, stating that the evidences were abundant to show that there was an advance all along the lines in this matter. After a resolution of thanks to the citizens of Chester and the circuit for the hospitable and abundant manner in which they had entertained the delegates to the conference, and a general consensus of conclusion that the whole session was a harmonious success and blessing to all, the conference adjourned, since the end of the delegates and delegates repaired to the several depots for their respective homes. A vote of thanks was also given to Rev. W. A. Christian for ably presiding.

Capacity Overtaxed. [Special to The Times-Dispatch.] LYNCHBURG, Va., July 22.—With a registration for entrance at the beginning of the next session sufficient to fill the old dormitories, as well as the one hearing completion, there is no longer any doubt, if any ever existed, that the Randolph-Macon Woman's College would be unable to accommodate all the applicants for matriculation this year. It seems quite certain that President Smith would be able to fill another dormitory if the college had it ready. This condition is just as was predicted by the college authorities at the close of the last session.

MUST FACE COURT ON HORSE-STEALING CHARGE. LYNCHBURG, Va., July 22.—John Lee, a white man, about twenty-five years of age, was before Mayor Smith in the Police Court this morning, and was held for the action of the September grand jury on the charge of horse-stealing. The horse alleged to have been stolen yesterday by the man was hired from W. J. Merchant, the city liveryman, and sold, it is charged, to a man at the market some time afterwards. The animal is valued at $100, and was sold for $40. D. Hawks becoming the purchaser in good faith. The police took a hand in the matter and returned the horse to Merchant and the money to Hawks, the $40 being taken from the person of Lee.

After being arrested Hawks stated he was from Danville, but this morning claimed he had only been there for a short time, and that Concord, N. C., was his home.

ACCUSED OF EMBEZZLING FUNDS HELD IN TRUST. [Special to The Times-Dispatch.] ASHEVILLE, N. C., July 22.—Embezzlement, obtaining money under false pretenses, and disposing of property under mortgage and the charges facing R. C. Bollinger, who was arrested in Knoxville yesterday and brought back to Asheville this morning. Mr. Bollinger was in charge of $500, a benefit fund from the Junior Order of United American Mechanics, which he was a prominent member, belonging to the children of J. B. Allen, who died in South Carolina about five years ago. A month ago one of the heirs became of age and made application for his part of the money. Shortly afterward Mr. Bollinger disappeared, and was not found until yesterday.
