FOYER GOSSIP.

The fashion show is to become a regular feature of the Keith program, according to present plans. Each year the vaudeville magnates will combine with the big costumers and modistes of New York and Paris in an exhibition similar to that seen last week.

In "Green Stockings," Maud Gilbert will have the biggest comedy role she has had since her first appearance here in "The Rule of Three."

Edith Bradford will return to the Na-tional next week with the Aborns' pro-duction of "The Mikado."

Elinor Henry will spend the next week in taking a much needed rest and pre-paring for the slege of hot weather pro-ductions by the Columbia Musical Stock

The regular vaudeville season at Keith's will continue as long as the patronage of the theater keeps up to its present mark. No plans have been made for July and August, as yet, although it has something made for July and August, as yet, at though it is probable that something new in the form of amusement will be

When "Polly of the Circus" is pro-duced at Poll's next week, Maud Gilbert will have another of the Edith Talia-terro roles, and will use Miss Taliaferro's costumes and properties as she "Rebecca of Sunnybrook Farm."

Ottola Nesmith, the Washington girl who has achieved prominence in stock productions, is at present leading wom-an of the Empire Players at Lewiston, Me., and recently played opposite Ed-mund Breese in "Today."

Reduction of salaries to the so-called "summer" schedule is said to be responsible for the withdrawal of Charles Richman, Emma Dun, and Norman Trevor from the cast of "Sinners" at William A. Brady's Playhouse. Alice Brady, the manager's daughter, is also to leave the piece, to take Natalie Alt's place in the rivival of "The Mikado."

"Watch Your Step" was produced in London two weeks ago and is said to have scored a hit. Ethel Levey, George Graves and Joe Coyne are in the cast. "On Trial" has been given the approval of the London playgoers, according to a dispatch to Variety. T. Roy Barnes and Janet Dunbar are to have the leads in the Max Marcin farce, "I Want Money" which Al H.

Woods is preparing to produce. Frederick Santley, brother of Joseph, is to play Youth in "Experience" when William Elliott leaves the cast.

H. H. Frazee plans to produce a new tarce, "A Full House," at the Longacre heater tomorrow night with a cast headed by Herbert Corthell and May

Charlie Chaplin, the motion picture comedian, was offered $1.800 per week to appear with the new Ziegfeld Follies, but his contracts with the Essanay Film Company forbade his acceptance, Rockelisse Fellowes, former leading can of the Poli Players, is now playing he leading role in "Under Cover" in for York.

James Montgomery, author of "Ready Money," is to be featured in vaudeville at the Palace, in New York, in a sketch written by himself and staged by Arthur Hopkins. Adele Rowland, who, by the way, is a Washington girl, has scored a great

Dear Sir-Having seen in The Washington Times that the Vienna Hat Company made a specialty of remodeling Panama hats I thought I would give them a trial. On a Monday morning I took them my last year's Panama, which was large, out of style and almost shappless. A few days later I called for it and was greatly surprised to see what appeared to be a new, stylish and becoming
