

YANKEE TROOPS IN LONDON'S GREAT PEACE PARADE

A photograph taken from the roof of Buckingham palace, with the Victoria monument in the foreground. Behind the monument can be seen coming the United States troops. Passing around the statue, on the left, are also Yankee doughboys.

AMERICAN SUBMARINES BACK FROM WAR ZONE

Four of America's latest type submarines which have seen 24 months of active service in the war zone have returned and are here shown anchored in the navy yard at Norfolk, Va.

HEROIC MARINES MARCH THROUGH NATIONAL CAPITAL

Men of the Fifth and Sixth marines passing the treasury building in Washington when they were reviewed by President Wilson and Assistant Secretary of the Navy Franklin Roosevelt.

HOUSE COMMITTEE HEARING THE PLUMB PLAN

Glenn Plumb, counsel for the four railroad brotherhoods, explaining to the house committee on interstate and foreign commerce the so-called Plumb plan. The program is embodied in a bill in congress providing for the nationalization of the United States railroads with a profit-sharing and control-sharing basis for the labor which operates them.

WHO KNOWS WHAT KIND OF FISH THIS IS?

Huge and unknown fish caught by mackerel fishers in a net at Torbay, England. It was 18 feet long and was of a species unknown to the fishermen, being a sort of cross between the man-eating shark and the gentle dolphin.

MUSIC FOR PATHFINDERS

Lieut. J. E. Adams handing a photograph to Lieutenant Shangraw, one of the pilots of the pathfinder planes which have started a coast-to-coast flight from Mineola. As the planes whiz through the air the strains of music will be transmitted by wireless to the accompanying detachments of men and officers who will travel via trucks.

Simple But Effective.

Maj. W. H. Graves of the British army medical corps told at the meeting of the American Medical association a story of how one physician cured a soldier who had been made dumb by shell shock. He took him into a room, turned on him suddenly with a threatening gesture, and shouted: "Speak!"

And the man was startled into speaking. Once having regained his speech he never lost it again. All he needed was to be convinced that he could talk, for there was no physical injury to his vocal cords or mouth.

Demands "Place in Sun."

Lebanon, a little California town, became a bit tired of the way the cities around her snatched days from the calendar and named them for products of which they were especially proud. Escondido had a grape day, Fresno flourished a raisin day, and presently San Bernardino announced an orange show. Not to be outdone, Lebanon proclaimed a strawberry fair, with the additional note that she grows the finest strawberries in the world.

BEE BUZZING AROUND THESE OHIOANS

In Senators Harding and Pomerene, Ohio has two presidential possibilities. Senator Harding is considered by his many ardent supporters as the logical Republican candidate for the presidency. Friends and supporters of Pomerene have just started a nation-wide boom that they think will land the senator in the presidential chair for the Democrats. This snapshot was made at the United States capitol. Mr. Pomerene is at the left.

MISS CAMPBELL TO WED

Of general interest to the public and of peculiar interest to congressional circles is the announcement of the engagement of Miss Elizabeth Pitt Campbell to Capt. Burdette Shields Wright. She is the daughter of Representative and Mrs. Philip P. Campbell of Kansas. Captain Wright saw service in the aircraft division of the army during the world war and is a member of a well-known Kentucky family.

Scottish Inheritance Laws.

When a family becomes extinguished in Scotland, and there are no heirs left, the estate falls to the crown under a legal sanction known in Scottish law as ultimous haeres. A white paper in regard to such estates has recently been issued in Scotland. A note says that by the law of Scotland the king's and lord treasurer's remembrancer is entitled by virtue of his office to administer on such estates without letters of administration or other process of law. The number of such estates dealt with in 1917 was 156, and the crown received $337,005.

Massage for Lumbago

Lumbago, according to Dr. Pometta, head of the medical department of the Swiss Accident Insurance Institute, may be purely rheumatic, or result from a strain to a muscle, or be produced by a chill when overheated. He says massage is the best treatment, and that recovery should take place in from six to eight days at the outside.

STRIKING ACTORS AT HEADQUARTERS

A crowd of thespians in front of 158 West Forty-fifth street, New York, headquarters of the Actors' Equity association, which is fighting the managers in an endeavor to force them to recognize and treat with the actors' union.

PERSHING QUALIFIES AS A MARKSMAN

General Pershing, on a visit to the great rifle range at Le Mans, France, demonstrated to the onlookers how he handled a rifle in his frontier days.

BRIEF INFORMATION

More than a dozen American women and playwrights are said to be in the enjoyment of annual incomes in excess of $50,000 from their literary work.

Before the war England imported over 80 per cent of the glass used in the country, but since the importations were stopped she has been able to produce enough for her own needs. A factory has been installed in Holland for the manufacture of sacking carpets, and even fine fabrics from plant fibers, by means of a new process. Great quantities of vegetable fiber are being accumulated for the purpose.

A woman is the patentee of a new post-hole digger with a hinged scoop to remove all the loose earth from a hole.

Chile, the "shoestring republic," is as long as the distance from New York to San Francisco and as narrow as Lake Erie.

New York theatrical producers report a shortage of chorus girls, notwithstanding the fact that their wages have doubled in the last few years.

Two French scientists contend that 10 per cent of the chickens in that country have tuberculosis and that the disease runs as high as 25 per cent among poultry in some other countries.