

Contributed by Tommy Trapp

Your Ship's Master

The Master of the USAT GENERAL BLATCHFORD is Captain Louis B. Brunson.

Captain Brunson has been with the Army Marine Transportation Service for seven years. Previously he had been in the Merchant Marine and has spent over twenty-five years at sea, having gone to sea in 1920
on a sailing vessel.

During the war, Captain Brunson was Master of the LURELADY, STEEL TRADER, GUNPOINT, GENERAL AULTMAN, GENERAL HADD, and GENERAL BLATCHFORD.

Captain Brunson has sailed under three flags and on many types of ships: cargo, freighter, passenger and yacht. He makes his home while ashore, in Daly City, California.

OCT 21, 1948

MENU

CAPTAIN'S DINNER

LIVER CAI PAGO	MORE D'OLIVES	MILD PICKLES
EGG ALA PRINCES	S. ROINE F. S. P. L. T. O.	RIF. OLIVES
	EGG PICANTE

PURSE OF SPLIT PER. SOUP WITH CROUTONS

FRIED SHRIMP LOUISE

GRILLED FILLET OF LEGHORN ALA STAWLEY MUSHROOM SAUCE

SHOESTRING POT. TOES FRESH CAULIFLOWER W/ HOLLANDAISE SAUCE

AVOCADO & LETTUCE SALAD WITH LOUIE DRESSING

FRESH FRUIT SUNDAE

PETIT FOURS

HOT DINNER ROLLS

ASST. COOKIES

C. FE NOIR

CHIEF STEWARD
M. J. SIDEMAN

CHEF
E. F. JERDO

A message from the SHIP'S MASTER

TO PASSENGERS:

This homeward bound voyage has been a little rougher than usual, but we hope that you have enjoyed the trip in spite of a few rough spots and wish you all the happiness on your return to the U. S. A.

L. H. Brunshon

L. H. BRUNSCHON
Master

